

Use of Computers and Network

Use of computers and network services is a privilege enjoyed by students of Taylor Business Institute. As with all privileges, computer or network usage at TBI carries with it certain responsibilities. These responsibilities are set forth in the TBI Acceptable Use Policy and are reproduced below:

Prohibited uses of the TBI Network include, but are not limited to:

- Use of the TBI Network for, or in support of, any illegal purposes
- Use of the TBI Network for, or in support of, any obscene or pornographic purposes; this includes, but is not limited to, the retrieving or viewing of any sexually explicit material;
- Use of profanity, obscenity, or language that is generally considered offensive or threatening to persons of a particular race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, or persons with disabilities
- “Reposting” or forwarding personal communications without the author’s prior consent
- Copying commercial software in violation of state, federal, or international copyright laws
- Using the TBI Network for financial gain or for the transaction of any business or commercial activities
- Intentional disruption of the use of the TBI Network for any other users, including, but not limited to, use of any process, program, or tool to ascertain passwords or engaging in “hacking” of any kind
- Providing access to the TBI Network to unauthorized individuals

For more information regarding network usage guidelines and the wireless network policies and procedures, please refer to the student handbook or the college website (www.tbii.edu).
